AN INCOMPARABLE SETTING AND FACILITY

The pictures tell the story of why Great River surpasses other club options for business organizations. Our scenic and serene setting with a grand clubhouse can be utilized as both a rejuvenating respite from the day-to-day or a productive retreat to conduct important business. Beautiful landscapes greet the eye right from the entrance gate to the magnificent grounds surrounding our impressive clubhouse facility. Each hole paints a unique, picturesque scene from tee to green with many including river views.

Once inside, the possibilities for your corporate membership become evident with each step you take through the facility. Flexible space for large or small meetings can be tailored to your requirements in our Grand Ballroom, restaurant, grill room or outdoors on either our upper or lower patio. Celebrations, outings and corporate events are easily accommodated in the same spaces or other locations throughout the facility. Whether used for business, leisure or gratitude towards clients or staff, Great River's setting and facility fill the role to perfection.

“Until we joined Great River I never realized how invigorating and productive a club membership could be. Of course, we enjoy entertaining clients in its first-class facility. As important, the gorgeous surroundings along the river provide a superior meeting venue and chance to get away from office distractions and focus.”

– Gene Horne, President of ECS Transportation

COMPREHENSIVE CORPORATE CONCIERGE SERVICE

We recently reinvented Great River with the corporate community in mind. Our first goal was to deliver the best facility to accommodate both business and pleasure. Our second objective was to staff it with professionals experienced in both corporate meetings and event planning. We are pleased to say we succeeded in both instances. Any time you need to set up a meeting or event, just call your dedicated concierge and we'll do the rest. Creative vision and event development and direction are accompanied by detailed professional planning. This ensures that no important element is overlooked, and no unforeseen circumstance cannot be quickly reconciled.

Affairs from 10 to 200 people are our specialty, and our staff looks forward to working with you prior, during and after the event. Our expertise with the extra touches to make your experience special and unique include top-notch AV for quality sight and sound, remote conferencing as well as a speaker and talent booking service.

- Comprehensive AV service
- Executive meeting room
- Large meeting room and event space
- Grill room
- Restaurant

“Great River’s dedicated concierge service makes holding corporate functions at the club a breeze. Whether it is a client event, employee outing or sales meeting, the professional staff guides you from planning all the way through to its perfect ending. I don’t view our membership as just a perk. I see it as an extension of our company.”

When you transition from business to pleasure to either reward employees for a job well done or celebrate with clients and vendors, Great River kicks it up another notch. Our fine-dining restaurant, grill room and expansive outdoor venues are at the ready to deliver an unequaled experience and create memories that last. The sights, the services, our staff and the cuisine will please your guests' senses from the moment your event begins. Clients and staff will immediately know they are appreciated, valued and deserving of the effort you put forth. The result – better client relationships and staff loyalty with reinvigorated enthusiasm to get back to work.

“There isn’t any type of event I could think of that wouldn’t be improved by holding it at Great River. That’s why our corporate membership makes so much sense. We can conduct business, entertain clients or reward our employees with dinners or an event that we know will be top notch. In fact, the club’s staff will even host our guests in our absence. They’re like part of our team.”

– Vincent Bartoli. Vice President & General Manager, Turner Construction

“Now, with our corporate membership, I don’t have to think about where to take clients when I want to impress them. We’re heading to the Club, Great River. The facility, the food, the setting are all spectacular. Oh, and if golf happens to be their game, then I have an extra-special treat for them. The course along the river is outstanding and was named one of the top 50 places to play in America.

— Steve Baye, Director of Product Development for CT Distributors

DID WE MENTION THE GOLF?

Of course, your corporate membership also comes with full privileges* at our nationally acclaimed golf course. A day on the links at Great River’s championship-style, Tommy Fazio-designed track is a treat your golf-loving employees and clients will not forget. Nestled along the banks of the Housatonic River, Great River was created for golfers who appreciate a first-class experience in awe-inspiring surroundings. Its design includes five levels of tees to ensure golfers of all abilities have an enjoyable and memorable day.

Great River is a celebration of excellence from the very first tee until the last celebratory glass is raised in the members’ lounge. More important, our corporate members can be confident that joining now includes the commitment, investment and vision of Sacred Heart University. It’s a commitment that secures the integrity and prosperity of their course and facility and delivers unmatched value for their association.

- One of America’s top 100 courses you can play -Golf Digest
- Best Places to play in the U.S 4.5 out of 5 stars -Golf Digest
- Favorite golf course -Northeast Golf Magazine
- Refreshment service on course and on call
- Great for company golf outings or client entertainment
- Outing planning – we’re here to guarantee satisfaction

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP AT GREAT RIVER

A RARE OPPORTUNITY

There are not many clubs that can offer Great River's unique combination of club amenities, financial stability, course quality and member value. The remarkable savings and options our corporate membership plans offer result from our association with Sacred Heart University, working in concert with club management and staff who are dedicated to a mission of excellence and innovation.

Commitment to that vision will become immediately evident the moment you arrive to tour our facility and grounds, learn about our services and sit down with our staff to build a plan that fits best with your company's needs.

Customize a membership to include benefits that few, if any, clubs can offer:

- Transferable tee times to staff or clients
- Discounted rates for corporate meetings or events
- No room rental fees
- 20% discount on all apparel and accessories
- Outing planning
- Corporate golf clinics
